

Captain Eco Tour Guide

If you love the outdoors, are a life-long learner and enjoy a positive work environment, this is the place for you! Charleston Outdoor Adventures has been educating guests about the Lowcountry & salt marsh ecosystem for nearly 15 years. As a Captain with COA, you will lead groups of 50-30 guests on 1.5-2.5 hour long excursions, charter private tours and spend your days outside learning & exploring.

Responsibilities & Expectations:

- Participation in a 3 week (approximate) training
- Ability to complete safety training
- Learning & communicating scientific information
- Passion for nature
- Have personal transportation
- Must be able to work holidays & weekends, accommodate "split" shifts, being on-call and working a seasonal job
- Ability to maintain a positive and professional attitude while working outside in the elements

Required Experience:

- Adult & Child CPR/First Aid Certification (or ability to obtain within 30 days of hire)
- USCG 25/50 Master Ton Captain's License
- Experience speaking in front of groups
- Ability to swim
- Ability to lift 50-100 lbs
- Ability to arrive on time and maintain professional experience & conduct
- Competence & common sense

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience leading nature-based tours
- Knowledge of local ecology and/or understanding of marine/coastal environments
- Associate or Bachelor degree in areas of environmental science, recreation, communication, education or similar field

Trainings

As a Captain, you will participate in an on-site safety training session and approximately 2-3 weeks of shadowing and co-leading tours. All training sessions will be scheduled by management based on staff availability, need and weather conditions. A manager or senior guide will complete a "check off" before you lead solo tours.

Schedule

Full time, seasonal Captains work 5-6 days per week. You can expect 4-8 hours of scheduled tours per day. Given the seasonal & outdoor nature of this job, days are dependent on weather & interest, with highest hours expected in the Spring, Summer & Fall months. Seasonal Employees can expect to be scheduled regularly March- October.

All staff are expected to be available to work weekends & holidays.
